PEMBROKE STATE UNIVERSITY

PEMBROKE, NORTH CAROLINA VOLUME XXXVIII

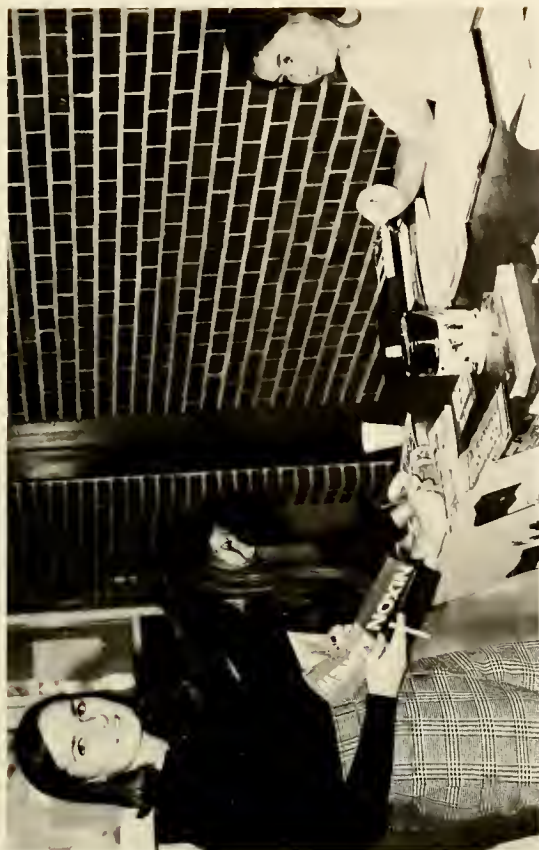

We just shake hands at meeting
 With many that come nigh;
 We nod the head in greeting To many that go by, —
 But welcome through the gateway
 Our fun old friends and true;
 Then leaps up, and straight way
 There's open house for you!

Here and now — only this is real:
The good face of an old man,
Caught naked in an unguarded moment,
Without past, without future.

— Dag Hammarskjöld

You cannot pursue happiness and catch it.
Happiness comes upon you unawares while you are helping others.

Happiness does not depend upon what happens outside of you but on what happens inside of you; it is measured by the spirit in which you meet the problems of life.

Happiness does not come from doing what we like to do; but from liking what we have to do.

Happiness grows out of harmonious relationships with others, based on attitudes of good will, tolerance, understanding and love.

— Wilfred A. Peterson

The 1973 Indianhead is dedicated to Doctor Karl Scheele a man whom the Senior Class feels is outstanding in his profession. He is regarded by fellow associates as well as students to be one of the finest professors to stride the campus of Pembroke State University. He is known for the atmosphere he creates in his classes. He is respected and admired for his ability to communicate to his students. For admiration of his numerous abilities, the 1973 Indianhead dedication is presented to Doctor Karl Scheele. Please accept this with our congratulations.

Faces of Pembroke State University vary. There are always the students—playing, studying, rehearsing, rushing, and the faculty and staff taking part in the university activities.

New faces , new ideas Summer schools over ,
Fall Semester begins .
New friendships made ,
Old renewed —
New faces , old faces .
Each face has its own situation .
Faces of the "now" student —
The student on the move ,
Going from nowhere to, hopefully,
Somewhere .
The travels of train , bus, plane , or car as He deserts the campus for the weekend .
The student today is trying to find Himself , trying on new faces and Reaching out for self-expression .

It's a busy world we live in,
 We get caught in the race,
 And sometimes our sense of values Slips a little out of place.
 It's a good thing to pull over To the roadside now and then
 And get our thinking straightened out Before we start again.
 There's a new exciting challenge
 In the race of life when viewed
 With a heart refreshed with gladness,
 And with prayerful gratitude.

No Farther Away Than Tomorrow

No farther away
 Than Here and Today
 Is the loveliest place I know —
 A small secret spot
 In a walled garden plot
 Where all the nice memories grow

It's bordered with kindness
 And sprinkled with smiles
 And shaded by friendly trees
 This small quiet place
 In that walled garden space
 With its bright little memories

And I think about this Now, if I were to miss
 One day with my rake and my hoe
 In planting the seeds
 Of a few kindly deeds,
 It would mean fewer memories
 to grow

So I try every hour
 To plant a new flower, And strike down a weed in the way
 Where the nice memories grow
 In a spot that I know
 No farther than Here and Today.

Dare To Be Happy

Dare to be happy — don't shy away, Reach out and capture the joy of Today!

Life is for living! Give it a try; Open your heart to that sun in the sky.

Dare to be loving, and trusting,
and true;
Treasure the hours with those dear to you.

Dare to be kind — it's more fun than you know;
Give joy to others, and watch your own grow.

Dare to admit all your blessings, and then
Every day count them all over again.

Dare to be happy, don't be afraid
This is the day which the Lord hath made!

Beyond Measure

How can one measure friendship
The firm, warm clasp of a hand,
The comfort found in the welcome sound
Of the words, "I understand"?

How can one measure courage —
The strength we find to fight,
To suffer life's anxieties,
To stand up for the right?

How can one measure beauty,
hope,
Or happiness, or love?
What man-made measure can encompass Faith in God above?

So much of life — the best of life —
The things we truly treasure, Are these, the gifts of boundless depth
Beyond all earthly measure.

SPORTS

This business of living was meant to be more

Than plodding along each day
With head bowed down and eyes on the ground

While Time ticks the hours away.

God made this world a delightful place

With beauty everywhere —
The grass, the flowers, the trees, the sky,

The tang of clean, fresh air —

A world to be lived in, laughed in, loved,

To be met with joy and zest,
A world with a challenge for each of us

To give it our very best.

This business of living was never meant

As a treadmill sort of thing;
There are rivers to cross, and mountains to climb,
And glorious songs to sing!

Shag haired women, long haired men.
Lazy loafers, studious students.

Pine Needle people cursing a deadline

Sweating athletes running laps

Chorus members straining voices

Left, right, left, right... band members marching

Musgrove scurrying around the library People...

Living their own lives, thinking their own thoughts.

Yet all related, all turning together

Turning with the cooperative hum of individualizing.

High and wide and handsome —
That's how life should be;
Wide and high as a prairie sky,
Open and clean and free.

Handsomely giving of ourselves
And that which bears our brand, Sharing the best of what we possess
With a big and generous hand.

No more fences of fear and hate Dividing the human race;
Giving our minds the run of the range
In God's great open space.

High and wide and handsome,
Honest and clean and free,
A young-as-spring, adventuresome thing—Life should, and life can, be!

Whether it be the race of working, playing football, rush-week, pledging, or simply existing until the day of graduation and confronting those adorable faces, this is Pembroke State University, 1972.

An Ordinary Day

The Usual Work and then A bit of Play

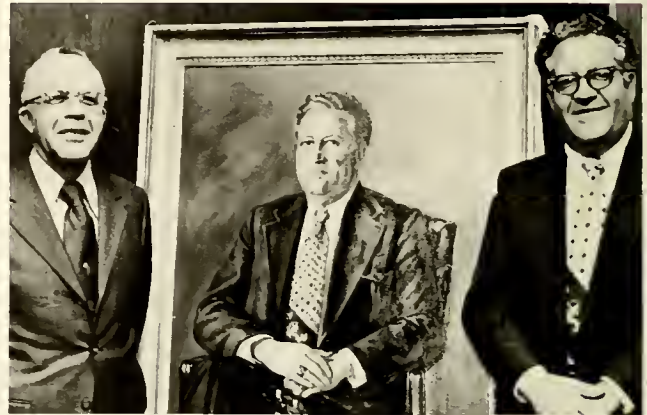

Contrasts between working from the President of the Student Government to the pleasure of winning that tennis match, P.S.U. has all faces and all activities; whether it is making it on crutches or voting for constitutional amendments, the students at P.S.U. are vivacious.

Down Paths of Light and Laughter

Now — may the warming love of friends Surround you as you go Down the paths of light and laughter
Where the happy memories grow.

Section Editors: Robin Alexander, Sports: Kathy Burriss, Editor: Cathy Summers, Classes: Joy White, Assistant Editor: and Billy Faircloth, Greeks

It has been a rough year but we, the 1973 Indianhead staff, hope that you will enjoy this annual. We would like to thank everyone for being cooperative and showing up for their scheduled pictures. Also thanks should go to Mrs. deHollan for putting up with us in North Hall Lounge where we did most of our work.

The work would never have been completed without the able assistance of the staff. Many thanks go to the section editors who took much of the responsibility in putting the annual together. The biggest thanks, however, goes to Joy White, Assistant Editor, who has worked diligently for the past two years. She has been there, as always, when needed.

I want to thank each and everyone of the students for permitting me to be your Editor of the Indianhead for the past two years. I have thoroughly enjoyed it and I hope that you are not disappointed in what I have done.

Now I leave with you the 1973 Indianhead to have to enjoy the many memories of PSU while you were a part of it and it of you.

Thank you again,
Kathy Person Burriss

Congratulations!
